CHICAGO (April 2021) –Hailed as one of the “Top 10 American Flea Markets” by USA Today, Architectural Digest and HGTV, the 18 year-old Randolph Street Market is back after a year-long Covid absence with a monthly pop-up event in Three Oaks Michigan! The Garden Party Summer Season Opener takes place on Saturday, May 29th and Sunday, May 30th from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Eastern Standard Time and will continue monthly thru Labor Day Weekend.

Locals and Michiander's alike will join longtime Randolph loyalists as visitors to the market, exploring curated displays of art, antiques, vintage, and hand-crafted goods from a hand-picked selection of 40 indoor and outdoor dealers from the Tri-State area plus St Louis, Nashville, Los Angeles and Cape Cod.

“Our Chicago venue is undergoing renovation and rather than sit out another summer season after losing last year to the pandemic, an opportunity presented itself to take a road trip to Three Oaks with a monthly pop-up market. It has been a dream of mine to expand to Harbor Country where so many of our Randolph regulars have homes”, said Sally Schwartz, founder of the Randolph Street Market. “People from around the nation and internationally have come to Randolph to browse and shop for unique pieces to add to their homes and wardrobe. Interior designers, set decorators, fashionistas, antique collectors, and everyone in between can enjoy a fun-filled weekend shopping vintage and other timeless goods you won't find anywhere else. Three Oaks and all the towns in the area are so wonderful and welcoming, it feels like the perfect place to establish a second home for the Randolph Market!”

Treasure hunters will find art, antiques and ephemera like vintage advertising, rock posters and photography; vintage housewares and décor such as pottery, barware, crystal, table settings, tea carts and linens; indoor and outdoor furnishings, garden ornaments, bird baths and exotic plants; estate and costume jewelry; fashion accessories including vintage and hand-made clothing, handbags, totes and home goods.

Attendees looking to throw the ultimate vintage picnic or backyard gathering are invited to explore a variety of outdoor goods, perfect for the summer season ahead. Think outside the pot and learn the ins and outs of how to transfer your plants to vintage urns with Rand Rosenthal who will be onsite with gorgeous exotic plants, trees and garden ornaments picked from historic St. Louis estates. Hunker Goods from Nashville is bringing their hand loomed Badlands blankets and pillows, Camp Chairs and signature leather goods and accessories. Chicago dealer Lee Merrick Antiques has a great selection of Mantiques, primitives, country store antiques and vinyl. Lovers of French and Modernist art deco will enjoy the selection of Bakelite radios, polished aluminum hood ornaments, and tabletop collections from Zig-Zag Antiques.

Guests can enjoy grab-and-go lunch onsite with Three Oaks farm-to-table food favorite, Froehlich's. A furniture delivery service will be available for week-day delivery following the market.
